Queen of Spain

There's a time when everything goes wrong a bird without a song burnt his wings in the sun

There's a time when I don't care at all if I stumble or fall, things won't change after all

Sometimes I feel like dancing like the kids are dancing in Spain Judy took the sports car driving fast down lover's lane sometimes I'm feeling reckless got desperado's blood in my veins Ramona's wearing a red dress looking hot, she's the queen of Spain

There's a time when I'm feeling so depressed and it's quite hard to confess, I ran my head against a wall

Sometimes...

Everyone wants a place in the sun, I want to take you there Everyone needs a place in the sun, come on – take me anywhere

Sometimes...

The next life

Summer's almost over an old man is sitting in the park an early autumn wind is shaking the trees and bringing sorrow to his heart

So many years were passing by since that summer I'll always recall you and I – we found love but we lost it all

Maybe in the next life we'll be together you and I maybe we're not the perfect couple but we could try – we could try

Maybe in another life when we both are cats I've heard this line in a movie sounds kind of funny – and kind of sad kind of sad

Back at his flat he's playing old records The Doors and Jimi Hendrix – music from the past the sound of guitars crying out in pain to comfort him at last

He pours a drink out of his favorite bottle and then he starts to smile he shuts his eyes and sees her lovely face forty years – that's quite a while

Prisoner

There's no chance to escape said the prisoner
the walls are too strong the fences too high

I've done nothing wrong but the world has changed now blue turns to grey and black turns to white

Where do I come from? – I don't know what's my name, what's my number? – I don't know

I – I am no one, let me go

Time is an express train got no emergency brake to stop keeps on running for ever you can never get off

What's the sense what's the meaning? – I don't know where's the key, the solution? – I don't know why am I locked-in? Let me go

There's no chance to escape
said the prisoner

Like the river

What has a mouth but never speaks what has a bed but never sleeps? what can run but has no feet? what's the the answer? – the river

Sometimes it's peaceful quiet and calm sometimes it's raging chased by the storm welcomed by the ocean with open arms

It's the river, the river

And life is like the river running peaceful – running wild and love is like the raging stream bursting its banks time after time

Some rivers dry up in the summer heat some are getting larger where branches meet some are freezing over when we're cold and shiver

Our living is like the river

Life is like the river
running peaceful – running wild

Hidden Highways

Drivin' down the hidden highway heavy rain hear the thunder roar don't know where I am or where I'm going not in Kansas anymore

Out of gas but the motor's running I hold the wheel but I can't stop pushing the brake but that's not working windshield wipers hardly do their job

You can never stop
when vampires want your blood

No moon, no stars just distant lightning I see the signs but no exit ramp a troop of bikers heading for a collision I'm running right through these lucent men

Did you see them, just glowing skeletons scary ghosts on their desperate way maybe the morning sun will save me hope dies last that's what they say

You can never stop
when vampires want your blood

You're overtired – you need a break a cup of coffee – a fatal mistake don't leave the car you'd better drive for your life - for your life

Drivin' down the hidden highways familiar places far away maybe the morning sun will save me
hope dies last that's what they say

You can never stop

Sweet Joanna

He's got a pretty wife he checked her cell phone apps found out she's dating men affairs behind his back

He wants to buy a gun but he knows that won't help. oh, I still love that bitch I better kill myself

Oh, sweet Joanna my life's in a mess I've been trying so hard but without success oh, sweet Joanna, I came running to you you're selling love for money but what could I do?
where should I go?
what else could I do?

It's such a dirty life such a god-awful life and every one's a liar yes, every word's a lie

He grabbed his credit card went to the red light zone went to the hookers' house a better place than home

Why are you lying so quietly down on the floor I can't feel your heartbeat or your breath anymore who did this to you?
no, it wasn't me no, I'll never hurt you never hurt you, can't you see?

Oh, sweet Joanna my life is so sad I belong to the good boys but things turned out bad oh, sweet Joanna, I came running to you
you're selling love for money but what could I do
where should I go?
what else could I do?

Who did this to you? No, it wasn't me. Oh, no, oh, no – no!

Unhappy

Why do I feel so unhappy?

(I'm the lucky one, I'm the lucky one)

Why do I feel so sad and blue

(I'm the lucky one, I'm the lucky one)

Sunday's depression

Monday's blues – oh, – oh, oh lost illusions not a clue – oh, – oh, oh all these sleepless nights worries every day – it's not OK

Once upon a time

(A fairy tale)

One upon a time there was a princess she was living in a castle on a mountain waiting for a prince riding a horse as white as snow bearing a sword as sharp as a razor blade coming to defend her coming to save her life coming to fight the dragon

But something went wrong got out of control now she's playing a new game with heart and soul

She fell in love with the dragon she fell in love with the monster - oh yeah that's what she did

Once upon a time

there was a prince he was riding on a horse as white as snow but he never reached the castle on the mountain his only friend was the horse as white as snow and they lived - more or less - happily ever after

Love is

Love is a word
you can hear all the time it's written in novels
in songs and in rhymes

Love is a drug blowing your mind an island of bliss yet making you blind

Love is a flower that grows in the sun sometimes it's fading until it's all gone

Love is the pain you feel deep inside when she sends you away and the tears you can't hide

It's the strongest of all feelings love is desire turns your inside upside down love lights a fire – lights a fire

Love is a danger when it hurts like a knife you're feeling like a wrong-way driver on the highway of life

Love is passion possessive and loud love can be tender without any sound

Love is a lie love is the truth love is a game you can win and you can lose

Love is a word

Lights

Lights don't cast shadows flames are living light the night is a greedy monster you can run but you can't hide

Catch the waves of the ocean try to cage the wind search for the end of the rainbow find out where the universe ends and where it begins find out where the universe ends and where it begins
