

DRAGONFLY

Riding the dragonfly, wind in my hair. – That's what I like.

I see the secrets of life everywhere. – That's what I like.

I want to know about the power. It's everywhere. It's all around.

I want to feel, I've got the power with every move and every sound.

Riding the dragonfly high in the sky. – That's what I like.

MESSAGE FROM AN ALIEN

Got a message from outer space. Was it addressed to the human race?

Or was it just a joke? No one can tell.

Got a message from an alien. A strange message from an alien.

It said: There are angels beside the gates of hell.

Nothing is for ever, nothing is for good. No one lives for ever, but I wish I could.

I wish I would.

DREAMCATCHER

Can you fall in love with a dream? – Love, love is a dream. It's a dream.

Don't wake me up, don't wake me up. I don't want to wake up.

WELTVERBESSERER

Is this a picture of you? Is that a picture of me?

I saw the writing on the wall: The murderers are still free.

I heard somebody scream: Don't give up too soon.

I guess we need a new dream. So let's get back to the moon.

I want to do something good, I want to do something good,

I know, I can't change the world. But I'm a true believer.

We walked right into a trap. We're all caught in a trap.

Running around in a maze and there's no way out.

I saw the writing on the wall, it said: Make love not war.

Fading colours of hope in a hopeless time.

COLD EYES

Why do you treat me this way?

I see your face in a broken mirror.

I see reflections of a broken smile.

A sense of pain behind your laughter.

What is the secret behind your eyes?

The dark secret behind these eyes?

Cold eyes, cold, cold ice.

Close your eyes and imagine you're sitting on a lonely beach. A beautiful beach. And the sun - isn't there always the sun? - is going down slowly, very slowly.

And suddenly you start to freeze and you think: "Is it really getting cold on this tropical beach? Or am I cold myself?"

I see reflections in a pool of water.

I see an image of a different kind.

Are you my friend, are you my enemy?

What is the secret behind your eyes?

Cold eyes, cold, cold ice.

THE OTHER SIDE

I wonder, I wonder, what's on the other side.

Remember the TV-show, so many years ago.

They played a blank audio tape and through the noise you heard something sounding like a super natural voice.

It was just a trick, there is no doubt.

But people always try to find out

if there are angels, if there are ghosts.

Is there a secret behind the door that's forever been closed?

Somebody's watching, somebody's watching, somebody's watching you.

Somebody's watching, somebody's watching, somebody's watching over you.
